

Swet Studio Recovery Relaunch

From 40 to 170+ Members — In 60 Days.

When Swet Recovery came under new ownership, the location was stuck at 40 members, unclear brand positioning, and inconsistent local visibility. We partnered to rebuild from the ground up — closing temporarily for a refresh, reactivating with a tiered "Founding Member" model, and deploying the Revryze System: a full-stack relaunch engine designed to double or triple membership and monthly revenue for boutique wellness brands.

The Revryze System in Action

Three phases. One goal: predictable, repeatable growth.

1. Reboot — Foundation & Scarcity

- Temporary closure + fresh brand visuals
- 3-tier Founding Member structure (50 spots per tier, escalating price)
- "The Swet Reset" campaign created real urgency and exclusivity
- Local B2B + event partnerships seeded grassroots awareness

→ Outcome: A community that felt invited in, not sold to.

Reignite — Proof-Driven Marketing

Using our proprietary Meta campaign data from hundreds of prelaunches:

Campaign Performance

- CPL: $10-$19 average; best performers as low as $10.68
- Lead-to-member conversion: 17-23%
- Winning ad hooks: "20-Minute Recharge" & "Feel Better Fast"

Strategic Focus

- Messaging: Results-first (pain relief, recovery, energy restoration)
- Excluded freebie-seekers; focused on affluent, health-committed women (35-65)

→ Outcome: $10 leads, $129 memberships, $0 wasted ad spend.

Revryze — The Conversion Engine

Sales was the differentiator. We fully managed all new sales and trained Swet's team with our CEO Framework — Clarify, Empathize, Offer — to lead conversations with confidence and empathy. Each contact flowed through a three-tier urgency funnel with pricing locks and transparent scarcity.

→ Outcome: Real human connection turned leads into loyal members.

Community + Collab Strategy

While digital ads built awareness, local partnerships built belonging.

4+ pop-ups per week

Across gyms, medspas, yoga studios, and salons

Referral rewards and staff perk programs

For partner teams to drive authentic word-of-mouth

150+ leads per week sustained

Through B2B relationships and community engagement

10,000+ monthly local impressions

Social cross-promotion added massive organic reach

→ Result: A thriving micro-community around recovery, not just a studio.

Results Snapshot

Founding Membership Revenue Sold

$5,160 → $28,000+

Organic Reach

Minimal → 10K+ local impressions/month

The Takeaway

Swet Recovery's relaunch wasn't a lucky break — it was the result of a systematic, data-backed playbook that fuses human storytelling with precision marketing and sales psychology.

The Revryze System combines:

Data Intelligence

Insights from national Meta + sales conversion data

Emotional Storytelling

Positioning rooted in proof, not promotions

Operational Discipline

Clear urgency, structure, and accountability

That's how we help studios go from under 50 members to fully subscribed pre-launch — without heavy discounts or burnout.
